THE FENIAN ARMY.—The following order, designating the organization of the Irish Republican Army, with which the second invasion of Canada is to be attempted, says the New York Tribune, is now for the first time made public:

War Department, Fenian Brotherhood, No. 706 Broadway, New York, Jan. 21, 1867.

General Orders, No. 2.—The following name and designation is hereby given to the regiments of infantry of the Irish Republican Army, now under process of organization, viz:

The infantry enrolled in the States of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, will compose the 1st Regiment of Infantry, I. R. A. Those enrolled in Massachusetts, the 2d Regiment. In Connecticut and Rhode Island, the 3d Regiment. In New York City and Brooklyn, the 4th and 5th Regiments. In the East portion of the State of New York, east of a line running from Sackets Harbor to Binghampton, including Albany, Troy, Utica, Plattsburg, Ogdensburg, &c., &c., 6th Regiment, and all west of that line, including Buffalo, Dunkirk, &c., &c., the 7th Regiment. The 8th Regiment will be at present left vacant. In New Jersey and that portion of Pennsylvania lying east of the Susquehanna river, the 9th Regiment. All of Pennsylvania lying west of the Susquehanna river, the 10th Regiment. In Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, the 11th Regiment. In Ohio, the 12th Regiment. In Indiana and Kentucky, the 13th Regiment. In Illinois, the 14th Regiment. In Michigan, the 15th Regiment. In Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, the 16th Regiment. In Missouri and Kansas, the 17th Regiment. In Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, the 18th Regiment. In Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas and Florida, the 19th Regiment. In Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon, the 20th Regiment. In Nebraska, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, California, Arizona and New Mexico, the 21st Regiment.

1. Military Inspectors, Organizers and Centres of Circles, in the above named States and Territories, will immediately, upon a Company being raised, forward the muster rolls, properly filled up, to these headquarters, when the letter of the Company will be designated and forwarded.

2. When authority is given to raise Cavalry or Artillery Companies, instructions relative to the Number of the Regiment and letter of the Company will be issued from these headquarters as soon as complete rolls of the same are received and approved.

By command of President Wm. R. Roberts.

S. P. SHEAR,
Adj. Gen. and Acting Secretary of War, F. B.

RIVER NEWS.—The river at this point is rising rapidly, and is full of ice. No changes have taken place in the boating business.

The steamer Marcella is advertised to leave St. Louis for this place to-day. The Walter B. Dance and the Ida will make trips shortly to Fort Benton and the gold mines---the former leaving March 25th, and the latter March 10th.

The Kaw for the last few days has been on the rampage, sweeping away bridges, destroying pontoons, and committing other disagreeable and outrageous acts.

On the 14th the middle pier of the railway bridge across the Republic at Fort Riley, was undermined, and the bridge hurried off down the stream. Five men were on the bridge at the time, and carried away with it. The bridge is said to have passed Manhattan in good condition, bearing four of the men. At Wamego it was overhauled and made fast. What became of the men we have not yet learned.

On the same day the Big Stranger "boomed" to the extent of washing away the railway bridge across it.

The report current yesterday that the bridge at Wyandotte had been swept away seems not to have been true.

On the evening of the 14th ten pontoons belonging to the Lawrence bridge company, were carried off by the high water. Several persons narrowly escaped.

Over one hundred passengers were brought over the river yesterday by the little Heisley.—Leavenworth Commercial, Feb. 16th.

WE learn from the Winona Republican that four enterprising fellows named Bean, Hart, Baab and Klugman, recently played a sharp game in the town of Dresbach, Winona county, Minnesota. They represented themselves as members of the Masonic fraternity in high standing, with authority to initiate, and prevailed on two men named Becker and Patton to join the order, charging them twenty dollars each for fees. Afterwards Becker went to Trempealeau and found that the whole thing was a swindle, whereupon measures were immediately taken to bring the offenders to justice. They were arrested and after an examination, during which the above facts were elicited, they were required to give bonds, Bean in the sum of $500 and the other three in the sum of $200 each. It is said that Bean has been engaged in this business for several months past, and must undoubtedly have swindled a great many.

THE SISTERS OF CHARITY.—The Catholic Mirror publishes some facts concerning this Sisterhood, whose headquarters for the United States are at Emmitsburg, Maryland, from which it appears that it is in a flourishing condition. The present number of this Sisterhood is 951, being a net increase of thirty during the past year. They have founded four new establishments during the same period, and they have under their charge twenty-two hospitals, thirty-two orphan asylums, forty-nine parochial schools, four houses of charity and one academy—making a total of 108 establishments. These institutions extend from Boston to San Francisco, throughout most of the States of the American Union. The kind ministrations of these devoted ladies during the late war, both on the battle field and in the hospitals, to the spiritual and physical wants of the wounded and sick, have been universally recognized, and can never be forgotten.

BISHOP DOANE'S DEFINITION OF A GENTLEMAN.—A gentleman is but a gentle-man—no more, no less; a diamond polished that was a diamond in the rough; a gentleman is gentle; a gentleman is modest; a gentleman is courteous; a gentleman is generous; a gentleman is slow to take offence, as being one that never gives it; a gentleman is slow to surmise evil, as being one that never thinks it; a gentleman goes armed only in consciousness of right; a gentleman subjects his appetites; a gentleman refines his tastes; a gentleman subdues his feelings; a gentleman controls his speech; and finally, a gentleman deems every other better than himself.

Salt Lake City, November 5, 1866.

The Gentile Sabbath School.

[It may or it may not be known to the general Gentile public of this city, (and if not, it is their own fault,) that at Independence Hall there is a flourishing and interesting Sunday School in full operation. The School meets regularly, rain or shine, snow or mud, every Sabbath, at 2 o'clock, and we are sure if our citizens took a more active personal interest in the enterprise by visiting the School oftener, they would not only be amply repaid, but would help the cause. We learn that the School now numbers about one hundred and twenty-five constant attendants, of all ages—from three to seventeen years.

To lend additional interest and attraction, as well as to improve the minds of the little ones, the Superintendent recently received from California, by Express, a number of handsome books, adapted to the wants of the School, to replenish the old library, which had been read through and through. The funds for the purchase of these books—one hundred and twenty-five volumes—was the surplus arising from a dancing party given in the Hall in the early part of the winter. In order to meet the expenses incident to forwarding the new library by Express, another Social Party was held at the Hall on the 28th ult., by the friends of the School, and the indebtedness liquidated. In another column we present the financial report of the gentlemen who had the management, from which it will be seen that it was a decided success, leaving still a small sum in the treasury for future drafts.

If those who contributed their mites on this occasion, and who have heretofore so generously responded to every call made on them, could know how their liberality cheers the hearts of the children, and how much good is being done by the School, they would be more than repaid for their generosity. The exercises of the School, we happen to know, are entirely devoid of any narrow, bigoted, exclusive, or sectarian characteristics, and to the little ones intensely interesting and profitable. This School should be an object of interest to every person not thoroughly hide-bound with bigotry and intolerance. Yet it has had to encounter much opposition, but has continued to flourish and prosper. No child is excluded, whether Methodist, Catholic, Presbyterian, or Mormon, but all are cordially welcomed. The gentlemen and ladies who devote their time, with so laudable a spirit, to it, are entitled to the thanks of the community, and should receive the encouragement and support of all.

Our thoughts were directed in this channel more particularly by a recent communication in the Deseret News, signed "Adolphus H. Noon." Now, Mr. Noon may be, for aught we know, a very good man, an excellent Sabbath School teacher, and an exemplary member of his Church, but he exposes a very narrow, contracted and bigoted mind, in his slurs against the only real, live, up and down Sunday Schools ever established in this Territory. Just hear this Saint:

EDITOR DESERET NEWS:—How is it that we cannot keep up our Sunday schools, at least as successfully as do some of the Wesleyans and other sectarians? It is surprising to note how shortsighted we are in this respect. I know of those amongst the Saints (old "Mormons" and elders) so foolish as to send their children to a sectarian Sunday school. What folly to travel and endure so much to get away from sectarianism, and then to send our children to imbibe the teachings of those whose acknowledged aim is the destruction of all that a true Saint holds dear!

If dear Bro. Adolphus means by Sectarianism, that at the School to which he refers the great truths of the Bible are inculcated, and the lessons taught by Christ himself impressed on the youthful mind, he expresses his meaning when he uses the term. But if he means what the word literally and in common acceptation expresses, he is altogether off the track. He either wilfully misrepresents, or, as is more probable, has given expression to a very narrow prejudice, which has less openly, on many occasions, sought to injure the School.

But the teachers of the obnoxious Sunday School take pains and pleasure to make it an interesting institution to the children, who delight in it. Hear the terrible charge brought against them by this whole-souled Saint, and note the amiability and purity of his style. He continues:

One means made use of by the self-styled "regenerators" to decoy our children, is the frequent presentation of little books and tracts full of sectarian twaddle and falsehood, with an occasional grain of truth to season it. And to get such worthless rubbish, the little illustrations and trifling gifts pleasing unthinking childhood, some parents, who should know better, permit their children to attend. How unwise in parents to thus endanger the eternal welfare of their own children!

"Self-styled 'Regenerators' decoying our children" is good—very good. "Sectarian twaddle and falsehood" and "worthless rubbish" is delicate and pointed! Hadn't Mr. Noon better pay the School a visit some day, and hear the little fellows reading from the Testament the "Sermon on the Mount." Perhaps he would learn a little charity—if not a little common sense. Whether "Noon" is the News correspondent's real name, or simply a nom de plume, we know not. If the latter, we suggest (as infinitely more appropriate) that he adopt "Midnight." After the above exposition of his views, we are not surprised to learn from Mr. Noon himself, that all his efforts at establishing Sabbath Schools have proved a signal failure.

DEATH OF A CALIFORNIAN.—J. B. Manchester, of San Francisco, died at the Metropolitan Hotel, New York, on the 24th ult.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE."]

Washington, March 4.

In the Senate, at half-past 10 o'clock, A. M., President Foster delivered his valedictory and vacated the Chair. Secretary Forney assumed temporarily the duties of presiding officer.

On motion of Mr. Sumner, Senator Wade, of Ohio, was chosen President pro tempore.

The Secretary was instructed to inform the President of the United States and the House of Representatives of Mr. Wade's election.

The Senate then went into Executive session. At 11:55 the doors were opened, and the 39th Congress was declared adjourned sine die.

The House met at 9 A. M., and passed several private bills.

On motion of Dawes, a committee was appointed to wait upon the President and inform him that the 39th Congress was ready to adjourn.

At 12 M., Speaker Colfax delivered his valedictory, and declared the House adjourned sine die.

New York, March 4.

Advices from Venezuela state that Maracayby has been the scene of another revolutionary movement. General Orso with 400 men attempted to surprise the town. The police and the forces of the State of Truxillo encountered him, and Orso was killed and his followers dispersed.

Washington, March 4.

The Senate of the Fortieth Congress was called to order at 12:25 P. M. After prayer by the Chaplain, new Senators were sworn in in the following order: Cameron, Corbett, Conkling, Davis, Drake, Harlan, Howe, Morrill, Morton, Nye, Patterson, Sherman, Trumbull, Willey.

A committee was appointed to inform the President that the Senate was ready for business. Adjourned.

In the House, the Clerk of the 39th Congress called the roll of members.

Wilson, of Iowa, moved to proceed to the election of Speaker.

Brooks, of N. Y., arose and denounced the organization of the House, in the absence of seventeen States, as revolutionary, and presented a written protest from the Democratic members against it.

Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana, was re-elected Speaker, and sworn in by Dawes, of Mass., the senior member of the House.

The oath of office was then administered to the members.

After re-electing Edward McPherson Clark, the House adjourned.

Washington, March 5.

Mr. Brooks' speech in the House yesterday, in which he characterized its proceedings as revolutionary, was concluded by the presentation of a protest, signed by all the Democratic members. The following is the substance:

WHEREAS, The record shows that seventeen States—New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Tennessee, Kentucky, California, Arkansas, and Nebraska, representing eighty Congressional Districts, are not represented on the floor of this House; And whereas, of these unrepresented States seven are of the original thirteen which, in 1787, created the Constitution of the United States; therefore—

We, members elect to the Fortieth Congress, do now enter our most solemn protest against every action tending to a reorganization of this House, until the absent States shall be fully represented.

It is not probable that any formal message will be sent to Congress by the President.

New York, March 5.

A Herald special says the case of Sanford Conover is to be resuscitated by his counsel, who claim that false swearing before a Congressional Committee is not legally perjury, and hence he was wrongfully convicted in Court.

New York, March 5.

The steamship Henry Chauncey is in, with San Francisco dates to Feb. 9th, and $800,000 in treasure.

The Herald's special says a delegation had arrived at Washington, from South Carolina, to confer with the President in regard to the appointment of a Military Governor for the 2d District, under the Military Government law.

The Times' special says that private information from the South gives assurance that the people will at once accept the situation, and select delegates to Constitutional Conventions, in pursuance of the Government's Reconstruction policy.

A delegation from Virginia has been assured by the President that the Military Government law will be executed to the letter.

The President yesterday informed the Committees appointed to wait on him, that he had no communication to make to Congress, all matters of great importance having been disposed of by the last Congress.

The Times' Panama correspondence states that Senor Antonio Gonzales Carazo, President of Bolivia, was killed by his own body guard, while traveling in the interior, and that, in consequence, a revolution had occurred in Carthagenia.

A Tribune special says that Morrill will take Guthrie's place on the Senate Finance Committee; Conkling will go on the Committee on Foreign Relations; Generals Terry and Thayer, and Gov. Morton, will go on the Military Committee.

New York, March 5.

The Herald's Berlin correspondent chronicles splendid triumphs for the liberal democracy of Germany at the general election held under the universal suffrage franchise. The city returns from Berlin show that Count Bismarck, with every General of the late war, or Prussian war hero, has been signally defeated by the constituencies to which they were respectively nominated.

The Herald's Panama correspondent, under date of Feb. 28th, says the subject of war with Ecuador was being discussed, and a surveying party had been sent to run the boundary line between Costa Rica and Colombia. It was believed this expedition was designed to make a pretext for war on little Ecuador. Meanwhile, Colombia is in a state of internal warfare.

The yellow fever had almost entirely disappeared from Panama.

The Herald's Lima (Peru) correspondence, of the 14th Feb., says it is reported that four Spanish iron-clads are coming around Cape Horn.

A small rebellion had taken place in Chili, but was immediately suppressed.

The Herald's advices from British Honduras, dated Belize, Feb. 12th, say the Indians are still in arms against the English troops, and are marching on Belize with steady progress, and that the most consequences are feared. Dispatches had been forwarded to the Consul General of England in Havana, asking the immediate support of a man-of-war of that nation, but as there was not a Royal vessel within easy communication, it was supposed the Consul would ask the U. S. in Cuba would send an American gunboat to Belize to aid the English. This Anglo-Indian affair assumes a serious aspect in a financial point of view, as the right of [illegible] between all English planters and the Indians hinges on it, and mixes it with the Mexican question.

The Herald's Mexican correspondent says, in regard to the fate of Ortega, now a prisoner in the hands of Juarez, that the chances are good for his being shot as a deserter, but he may, after trial and conviction, be pardoned, when it is found how futile his revolutionary efforts have turned out.

Paris, March 4.

The French Government commenced legal proceedings in the Correctional Court against Emile de Girardin, for a leading editorial in his journal, boldly criticising the policy of the Emperor.

London, March 4.

Lord Brougham, to-day, made a speech strongly urging the adoption of the principle of household suffrage.

The following changes were made in the English Cabinet: Duke of Richmond, Colonial Secretary; Sir John Pakington, Secretary of War; Sir Stafford Northcote, First Lord of Admiralty; Right Hon. S. J. Carry, Under Secretary for the Colonies, and Mr. Stephens Cane, President of the Board of Trade.

NEW YORK, February 24.—Rev. Dr. McCarron, Arch Deacon of the Catholic diocese of New York, died yesterday.

WASHINGTON, February 23.—The President has nominated Professor Walcot Gibbs, as Commissioner to the Paris Exposition, in place of Professor Agassiz, whose duties prevent his acceptance.

LOUISVILLE, February 11.—Application is to be made to the United States authorities for a force sufficient to prevent depredations by robbers in Anderson county, the Governor being unable to furnish State troops for want of sufficient military law. County officers will not call upon the Governor to arrest the marauders.

Governor Bramlette received $155,000 today from the United States toward liquidating the Kentucky war debt.

THE SIOUX INDIANS.—We understand that the Sioux now here from Fort Wadsworth propose to guarantee by treaty the safety of travel, of the transportation of the mails and of supplies through the country claimed by them, and also the safety of the frontier settlements in Minnesota from all depredations from hostile Sioux or other Indians; provided the Government will authorize the organization of not less than two hundred and fifty men belonging to their bands, under an officer satisfactory to the Indians, to be appointed by the President for that purpose.

The compensation they require for their services they put at sixty dollars per month and rations for themselves and families, and grain rations for their horses, the Indians furnishing their own arms, ammunition, transportation, horses, and equipments of every kind, thus making the actual cost of the organization but little, if any, greater than that of the same number of troops of the cavalry arm of the service, while their efficiency in repelling attacks or punishing depredations of hostile Indians is far greater than that of the ordinary cavalry soldier.

These Indians have been used very successfully as scouts for the past few years, and their services have been highly spoken of in connection with the protection of the Minnesota frontier and the prompt punishment of hostile Indians attempting to reach the settlements, and we think this move is in the right direction to secure a permanent peace from the tribes now hostile to the whites and blocking the avenues of travel and trade over the great prairies of the West.—Washington Chronicle.

HORACE GREELEY lectured in New York last week, his theme being "Westward of the Mississippi." Speaking of Mormonism, he said he had met in Utah the son of one who had once been a wealthy merchant in New York, and an alderman, when that position was not synonymous with robber. The son was not as wealthy as the father had been. He had two wives, nevertheless, and one of them was the daughter of the other. The pair was looked upon quite as a matter of course by the Saints, and, he supposed, worked as well as the three-cornered affair could be expected to behave itself, until he went home one day and found the young one had disappeared. She had not been heard of when he (the lecturer) had left, nor did he presume he had since recovered her. She preferred no doubt the favors which were not divided with her mother. He had also, even among the bishops, met several not over happy in their marital relations—one who had among his wives two of his nieces; another, whose two wives (he was modest) never spoke to each other on any occasion, which made the house rather awkward to visitors. "Only imagine to yourself," said the lecturer, "a family of twelve children, with four or five mothers to bring them up in one house, and you have as fair a start for hell upon earth as you can well imagine. Ten years in such a purgatory would make a man long for the sound of Gabriel's trumpet."

A LADY'S ADVICE.—An exchange has the following: A young lady, the other day, in the course of a lecture (after the man and manner of Miss Anna E. Dickinson), said: "Get married, young man, and be quick about it, too. Don't wait for the millenium, hoping that the girls may turn to angels before you trust yourself with one of them. A pretty thing you'd be along side an angel, wouldn't you—you brute? Don't wait another day—but right now—this very night ask some nice, industrious girl to go into partnership with you, to clear pathway of thorns, and plant it with flowers."

A Glasgow paper says: "On Wednesday, thousands enjoyed the healthy and exhilerating exercise of skating on Loch Burnie. Among those on the ice, a young lady skating attracted great attention. She had with her a large Newfoundland Dog, and attached to the collar round the animal's neck was a pair of reins; these she held in her hands, and the dog directing her course on the ice, she in this way skipped along in very swift and graceful style."

The Omaha Republican, of the 15th ult., says that the snow storm west of there then raging, was reported the most severe ever known in the country. At Kearny the snow was reported four feet deep on the level, and on the Grand Island division five locomotives were snowed in and frozen up. Everything was at a standstill.

WE have been shown a letter from Philadelphia, says the Denver News, stating that the ore from the Esmeralda lode, in Snake River District, assayed at the United States Mint in that city, gave, in silver and gold, at the rate of seven thousand five hundred dollars to the ton. A pretty good yield.

CAPTAIN W. H. WILLIAMSON, of Mobile, has purchased the race horse Harry of the West, and challenges any horse in the United States to meet him in the spring races for any amount between $10,000 and $25,000.

War Debts of Loyal States.

The following is the bill in full as reported by Mr. Blaine, of Maine, from the Select Committee of which he is chairman. It is a measure which commends itself to the judgment of all who wish to see some relief to the burdens of local taxation:

A bill to reimburse the States that have furnished troops to the Union Army for advances made and expenses incurred in raising the same.

Whereas the States that furnished troops to the Union army during the late war were subjected to very heavy expenses, amounting in the aggregate to four hundred and seventy-five million of dollars, a large proportion of which has assumed the form of oppressive debt; and whereas this entire outlay was made for the common cause of the Union, and therefore constitutes an equitable claim on the common treasury of the nation; therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be reimbursed by the United States to each of the States that furnished troops to the Union army, and also to the several Territories and the District of Columbia, a sum equal to fifty-five dollars for each man duly enlisted into the military or naval service of the United States during the late war, the total number being reduced to a uniform standard of three years' service, viz:

To Maine, for 56,595 men, $3,112,725.
To New Hampshire, for 30,627 men, $1,695,485.
To Vermont, for 29,052 men, $1,597,860.
To Massachusetts, for 123,844 men, $6,811,420.
To Rhode Island, for 17,878 men, $983,290.
To Connecticut, for 50,514 men, $2,778,270.
To New York, for 381,696 men, $20,993,280.
To New Jersey, for 55,785 men, $3,068,175.
To Pennsylvania, for 267,558 men, $14,715,690.
To Delaware, for 10,303 men, $566,665.
To Maryland, for 40,692 men, $2,238,060.
To West Virginia, for 27,653 men, $1,520,915.
To Ohio, for 237,976 men, $13,088,680.
To Indiana, for 152,283 men, $8,375,565.
To Illinois, for 212,694 men, $11,698,170.
To Michigan, for 80,865 men, $4,447,575.
To Wisconsin, for 78,985 men, $4,344,175.
To Minnesota, for 19,675 men, $1,082,175.
To Iowa, for 67,930 men, $3,786,260.
To Missouri, for 84,079 men, $4,624,345.
To Kentucky, for 70,348 men, $3,869,140.
To Kansas, for 18,654 men, $1,025,970.
To Tennessee, for 12,077 men, $664,235.
To California, for 7,451 men, $409,805.
To Nevada, for 216 men, $11,880.
To Oregon, for 581 men, $31,955.

TERRITORIES.

Washington, for 895 men, $49,225.
Nebraska, for 2,460 men, $135,300.
Colorado, for 1,762 men, $96,910.
Dakota, for 180 men, $9,955.
New Mexico, for 1,011 men, $55,655.
District of Columbia, for 11,506 men, $632,830.

GOOD NEWS FROM EGAN.—We are in receipt of a note from Mr. John O'Dougherty, Superintendent of the Social and Steptoe Company at Egan Canyon, conveying pleasant news of the result of the recent exploration in the Gilligan mine of the company. Mr. O'Dougherty writes: "Within the past ten days we opened a new shaft on our mine, some three hundred feet from the main shaft, in which we cut the ledge at the depth of twenty feet. It is fully five feet wide, with handsome walls as smooth as glass, between which there is a large body of rich ore. On examining a portion of the ore it was observed to be flecked with gold. This, however, is not an unusual occurrence, as gold is frequently visible in the ore taken from our mine. An assay of the pulp of the ore obtained from the new shaft, which is now being reduced in our mill, yielded $20 in gold and $126 in silver. The ore was not selected, and was taken from the greatest width of the ledge." The Gilligan mine has long been regarded as among the best properties in the State, and this judgment is likely to be sustained by the management of Superintendent O'Dougherty.—Reveille, 26th ult.

SURRATT ARRAIGNED FOR TRIAL.—The following dispatch is from the Denver News of February 25th:

Washington, February 23.

Surratt was to-day arraigned before the criminal court. He was brought into court handcuffed, but, at the request of his counsel, the court ordered him to be released, and the indictment was read to him. Surratt entered the plea of not guilty. The clerk asked him, "How will you be tried?" To which he replied, "By my countrymen," when the officer added, "Then may God send you deliverance." The handcuffs were replaced, and the prisoner remanded to jail. No excitement was manifested during his presence in court. No day is yet fixed for his trial, but it is thought it will be in March.

THE dead body of Edward McGuire, a resident of St. Joseph, was found on the ice opposite that city on the morning of the 11th ult. It appears that he had broken through the ice, and become so much chilled before he got out that he had frozen to death.

MARRIED.

THE National Intelligencer tells the following story of Maggie Mitchell:

A young man of excellent qualities, who had once been with her on the stage, was drafted during the war. He was poor, but had just obtained employment under the Government, where, with great usefulness, he has from then till now continued. His associates had contributed several hundred dollars to aid him in securing a substitute. Five hundred dollars were still needed, as substitutes were then very high. He sat down and wrote to Maggie Mitchell, stating his case, and by return mail came the draft for five hundred dollars, with not the slightest intimation that she expected it to be ever refunded, though to the honor of the young man, we should add that the savings from his services were donated to that purpose, and that it was in due time paid in full.

ON DIT, that Charles Sumner is to retire from political life at the close of his present Senatorial term and spend several years in Europe; that ex-Governor Andrew will be a candidate for his place, and also Governor Bullock; that Hon. John R. Alley will then be Governor of Massachusetts; that General Butler will be the next nominee of the Republican party for President, and that E. G. Walker, one of the colored representatives in the Legislature, will run for Congress in Banks' district when his term expires.—N. Y. Herald.

A Chicago clergyman who didn't draw the Crosby Opera House, took his revenge on the following Sunday by preaching from a text in Jeremiah, which reads thus:

"As the partridge sitteth upon eggs and hatcheth them not, so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall have them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool."

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT HIMSELF.—Last Saturday Hiram Brochette shot himself in the leg with a Derringer pistol, while preparing to shoot a dog. The ball entered above the knee, ranging downward. Dr. Tjader, of Carson, extracted the bullet and dressed the wound, which was a severe one, owing to portions of clothing being driven into the flesh.—Virginia Enterprise, 26th ult.

LONG ago, in Massachusetts, it was the custom for a person to go about the meeting house during divine service and wake up the sleepers. "He bore a long wand, on one end of which was a ball, and on the other a fox's tail. When he observed the man asleep, he rapped them over the head with the knob, and roused the slumbering sensibilities of the ladies by drawing the brush across their face."

THERE were manufactured in the United States, and sold to the Government during the war, 393,961 breech-loading carbines, at the price of $22.73; 670,617 rifle muskets, caliber 58, Springfield model, $19.23; 54,117 muskets and rifles, caliber 58, Springfield model, $23.15; 359,449 revolving pistols, $15.92; 548 pistols of various kinds, $6.10.

HON. ROSCOE CONKLING, United States Senator from New York, is a man of muscular ability. He is several inches over six feet in height, with proportionate build. In this Congress New York will have two Representatives—Conkling in the Senate, and Morrissey in the House—who can take care of themselves.

In suits from Anker's Hall;
And none, as yet, was heard to regret
That he ever gave him a call.
He honestly deals,
And nothing conceals
Regarding the wear of his clothes.
But speaks with the truth,
To man and to youth,
Which each of his customers knows.
Hence, friends, one and all,
Go to Anker's Hall,
Walk boldly—don't cowardly creep
For there you'll find,
All obliging and kind,
With Clothing tremendously cheap.

The citizens of Utah, Idaho and Montana are at all times cordially invited to call at ANCHOR'S POPULAR CLOTHING HOUSE, when in Denver, and examine his most Elegant and Tasteful Stock of Goods, which will be sold at Prices Guaranteed Lower than the Lowest.
